January 2006

We held our 2nd annual Toys For Tots drive on Tuesday night, December 6th, 2005. Once again, we gathered at the Tap Room at Dubsdread Country Club for a fun evening to support a worthy charity. Alumni and active brothers and their families and friends stopped by for anywhere from a few minutes to several hours. After dropping off the toys and tasting an hors d'oeuvre or two, it was time to look over the auction items.

Justice had secured multiple sponsors who donated great prizes for a silent auction. Falcon Fire Golf Club, Total Golf Adventures, Corona Cigars, Dubsdread Golf Club, the Wine Warehouse, Alchemy, The Marino Dance Club, Golf All Mighty, Tim's Wine Market, PlayStation

Sports Fishing, Kinkz Salon & Day Spa, Celebration Golf Club, Art Services, and the EO Inn of Orlando were some of the silent auction sponsors. When the silent auction ended at 8:30, we had raise almost $1000 to go along with all the toys!

Justice put in a ton of hard work for this event and it paid off. We literally had a truck (well, an SUV) full of toys!. A member of the USMC was in attendance to collect the toys, and we filled the back of his SUV to the roof. In addition to the toys that were collected that night, Justice had placed 2 collection boxes at a couple of local businesses -- i.d.e.a.s. and TEKSystems. Both collection boxes were overflowing.

Upcoming Events

Our next meeting is Tuesday, January 3rd at noon at the University Club in downtown Orlando. Our speaker will be Brian Roquemore, President & CEO of America's All Stars, Inc. America's All Stars has designed one of the largest publicity campaigns in history for the sole purpose of attracting millions of kids, K-12, to character-developing, community-service projects. The campaign is paid for with Olympic-caliber corporate sponsorships so that 100% of the funds raised goes to programs.

The luncheons are $15. This price includes the meeting room, the meal, tax, tip, gratuity, and parking. The University Club is located on the corner of Rosalind and Central, right across the street from the main library. Parking during the meetings is available in the lot right next to the club.
