November 2007

Dr. Ed Wycoff played to a packed house at our November luncheon. We had to open up the divider and had overflow seating in the 2nd room. Ed had us rolling on the floor with laughter with his talk. He spoke to us about the power of humor and how it can be used to get through the tough parts of life.

Dr. Wycoff is a national award winning communications professor at UCF, a national award winning humorist speaker, an international award winning writer, and a national award winning military officer. You can find more information on Ed on the internet at edwycoff.com.

Prior to Ed speaking, Mike Fimiani, a former province president and now a Trustee of the Educational Foundation for the Fraternity, spoke about the work the Foundation does. The Foundation has awarded more than $2 million in scholarships, applied over $1 million to the alcohol free program, and given over $1 million to chapters to improve the educational portions of their houses (study rooms, etc.) The Foundation also sponsors education and leadership programs that are vital to the continued success of the Fraternity. There are multiple ways you can contribute to the Foundation, including gifts of cash, securities, assets, and bequests. For more information, call 513-523-6966 or email foundation@phideltatheta.org.

Upcoming Luncheon Schedule

December 4th

Jan Leach, a certified graphologist and document examiner, will be our guest speaker. Jan is a qualified handwriting expert witness with 7th, 8th, 9th and 18th Judicial Circuit Courts of Florida. Jan will discuss how handwriting is used in court, along with what a person's handwriting can tell you about them.

January 8th

Dr. Gary Miller, Medical Director of VITAS Innovative Hospice Care in Orlando, will speak on Alzheimer and dementia, including a test which you can use to determine your status forward. Dr. Miller will also dispel some of the common myths about the subject.

The luncheons are $15 ($10 for actives at UCF & Rollins). This price includes the meeting room, the meal, tax, tip, gratuity, and parking. The University Club is located on the corner of Rosalind and Central, directly across the street from the main library. Parking during the meetings is available in the lot right next to the club – just pull up to the gate and the gate will open.

Random Notes

Brothers Lee Bennett and Britt Simms have renewed their membership this past month. This brings our total paid membership to 44. If you haven't renewed yet, please send it in or bring it to the December luncheon.

In case you've been wondering where Brother Justice Mitchell has been lately, well, he's been kind of busy... Justice and his wife Shannon welcomed their first child, daughter Sydney, to the world on October 8th.
