Who Says There's No Such Thing as a Free Lunch?

Do you know a Phi in the Orlando area that isn't a member of our club? If so, how about inviting him to attend a future lunch meeting as your guest? The club will pick up the cost of lunch for the first lunch of any non-club member Phi you bring as your guest. This is a great way to introduce a brother Phi to our club.

Who Am phI?

Each month I would like to run a small biography of one of the members of our club. Meet Dabney C.T. Davis (Florida '52), VP of our club.

Dabney spent 30 years with the Brevard County School system as a history teacher, counselor, and administrator. Following retirement from the school system in 1985, he spent 9 years as a special agent with the Defense Investigative Services of the Department of Defense. Dabney spent 16 summers as a seasonal park ranger with the National Park Service in George Washington Parkway in Fairfax, VA. Dabney holds degrees from the University of Florida, Florida Southern College, and a master's degree from the University of Colorado (Bolder). He spent 14 years in the military, ranging from the Florida National Guard, the Army Reserves, and active duty as a Provost Marshall with the 793rd Military Police Bn in Nurnberg, Germany from 1954 – 56. Dabney received an honorable discharge as a First Lieutenant in 1962.

Brother Davis still has a love of history, with a specialty in the American Revolution and George Washington. He owns a small collection of flintlock weapons. Dabney currently resides in Rockledge, FL.
