Christmas Dinner a Roaring Good Time

Suzie DeBusk

The weather didn't cooperate (it was a wet, rainy night) but that didn't dampen our holiday spirit. Suzie DeBusk was the guest speaker at our December Christmas dinner. Suzie is an entrepreneur, leadership instructor, and African adventurer. Having founded and run her own technology firm since 1988, she has remarkable insight into what it takes to build and maintain a business. Additionally, she has been a lead instructor in a technology and leadership program within Fortune 50 companies for more than six years.

But this obviously busy schedule hasn't kept her from having some amazing adventures outside of the work place. Suzie has gone on more than a dozen African safaris, the first eight of which were on horseback, doing long gallops across the plains of Kenya, being charged by elephant and buffalo and many, many more adventures.

She shared some highlights of these safaris, along with some breathtaking photographs, to a group of 30 brothers and their guests at the University Club. The talk was preceded by a delicious Christmas buffet.

We also collected a great stash of toys at the Christmas dinner that were donated to the US Marines Toys-for-Tots campaign. Thanks to all who helped make this event a success.
