December 2002

Do you know the origin of these sayings?

"A flash in the pan"

"Lock, stock, and barrel"

"Don't go off half cocked"

If you had attended the luncheon on Tuesday,

December 3rd,
you would!

Brother
Dabney Davis
was our guest speaker.

Dabney
presented a program on antique and Revolutionary War weaponry.
He brought four authentic 1700's era
flintlock muskets. The biggest he brought were
.75 caliber!

Dabney has over 30
muskets in his collection.

He discussed
Revolutionary War
tactics, including the fact that often times the bayonets were more deadly than the muskets!

According to Dabney,
"The doorway to the freedom of our country was framed by the flintlock musket."

Guest speaker Dabney Davis discussing the features of the muskets
